B. A. B. L.
Secretary to the Govt. of Mysore,
Mysore Branch
Bangalore.

Sir,

With reference to my request made to you sometime ago - re. the question of granting the Mandiram a small quantity of Sandal-wood and Sandal-dust I beg now to submit this application for the kind consideration of the Government in the Mysore Department, and in doing so, I humbly beg to represent that the Mandiram, as is well known to you, is always in difficulties and that it is but in a fitness to buy Sandal-wood and Sandal-dust - required for the daily use of the religious services, that are to be conducted in the Mandiram

I consequently beg you most earnestly to be kind enough to recommend to the Govt. and to get orders passed for the grant every year - One mound of Sandal-wood and Mony of Sandal-dust, from the City Cutcherry at Bangalore

For this act of kindness on your part I shall ever feel obliged and you shall

Yours

Given the remembrance most gratefully by the Congregation.

I beg leave to remain,
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant
